

Stageplay

ACT I

Scene 1

As the curtain opens we see three cats lazing in the sunlight.

DAISY:

This is the life.

MITTENS:

This is how life was meant to be.

CHA-CHA:

I don't know. Doesn't it seem that something is missing?

MITTENS:

Don't be silly darling. We have sunlight to lay about in and food to eat.

DAISY:

What could be better than this?

MITTENS:

Nothing. Absolutely nothing my dear.

CHA-CHA:

But we're so lazy. I feel like we should do something.

DAISY:

You are absolutely right darling.

MITTENS:

She is?

DAISY:

Yes. We should move from here - to here.

MITTENS:

You are absolutely right.

CHA-CHA:

I was thinking of something a little more active.
(two dogs enter stage left)

REX:

Oh my gosh. What a day. What a wonderful day.

SPOT:

hey look. cats! Hey cats.

DAISY: hissssssss

MITTENS: hissssssss

CHA-CHA:
Hello.

MITTENS: Cha-cha!

REX:
hey do you wanna play? Do ya? do ya wanna play?

SPOT:
yeah. Come on out and play. Come on. What a great day.

REX:
Yeah, it's a great day. great day. great day to play.

DAISY:
Don't pay any attention to them.

MITTENS:
Absolutely not. Ruffians.

REX:
aww come on. come on and play.

SPOT:
yeah. we can run and jump.

CHA-CHA:
that sounds like fun. Come on girls.

MITTENS AND DAISY:
Cha-cha!

CHA-CHA:
well it does. I'm bored. We sit around and do nothing then we sit around and do more nothing.

SPOT:
We can play stick. Do you want to play stick?

CHA-CHA:
how do you play stick?

REX:
Ok you ready for this? somebody throws a stick. They just throw it. Throw the stick. Isn't that great?

SPOT:

Ok Ok.and then you run and get it. You run and get the stick.

REX:

its fun. its really really fun.

SPOT:

somebody throws a stick. They throw it.

REX:

And you run and get it. Just like that.

CHA-CHA:

That sounds like fun.

DAISY:

No it doesn't. Cha-cha be serious.

SPOT:

do ya wanna play stick? do ya wanna? huh?

CHA-CHA:

well, what do you do after you get the stick?

SPOT:

That's the really great thing. You see. You bring the stick back.

MITTENS:

Why on earth would you bring it back?

SPOT AND REX:

so you can do it again.

DAISY:

Go away.

MITTENS:

And leave us alone.

CHA-CHA:

I'm in. I'll play.

MITTENS AND DAISY:

Cha-cha!

CHA-CHA:

Do you have a stick?

SPOT AND REX:

Yes!!

SPOT:

I'll get it. I'll get it.

REX:

No I'll get it. Only take a minute.

CHA-CHA:

No I'll get it. Last one to the back yard is a rotten egg.

MITTENS AND DAISY:

Cha-cha stop!

CHA-CHA:

What?

DAISY:

Think about what you are doing.

MITTENS:

Yes think about it.

CHA-CHA:

Ok. I thought about it. Bye. Wait for me boys.

MITTENS:

Well, let her go. More sun for the two of us.

DAISY:

This is boring.

MITTENS:

Do you want to go play stick with them?

(Daisy nods)

Yeah me too.

MITTENS AND DAISY:

Wait for us!!!

(they run off stage.)
